Sun Earth is a small, lovely Win 7 theme specially designed for those of you who love space and want to bring the Universe to their desktop. This theme is completed by using the Sun window color. Installing this theme is as easy as can be: you just have to double-click it and you'll get your new desktop in a matter of seconds. Sun Earth includes the following features: * The Sun and the Earth are the only non-transparent, non-clickable elements in the desktop, while all the other components of the desktop are clickable. * This theme gives your desktop a special atmosphere that is reminiscent of the Space Scape Theme (you can have both themes installed at the same time). * When your mouse passes over the Earth or the Sun, the corresponding planet or star appears. * The colored components of the desktop are clickable, so they can be easily moved, minimized and closed. * The background of the desktop has the same color as the Sun and the Earth. * When you drag the mouse over the Sun, you can change its color. * The desktop of the theme includes the following components: - The live T-shirt model you see on the cover. - A full-featured and customizable clock. - A live weather module with a full-featured weather forecast. - A weather icon that changes according to the real time temperature. - A menu bar with quick access to the main options, favorites and settings. - A widget with information about the time. - Five different icons. - Five different desktop gadgets. - A very friendly welcome message. - A one-click installation

The Australian Jewish community is demanding a halt to the migrant influx which has been a long-time issue for the Jewish community. More than 1.3 million migrants were resettled in Australia since the 1970s. Many of these migrants are Muslims who, the Jewish community fears, have imported the radical ideology that is a threat to Australia. The Jewish community has made an emotional plea for the government to stop the flow of migrants from the Middle East. Paul Cormack has experienced the horror of the refugee crisis first-hand. Paul Cormack with his son Chaim, now 17. He has gone to the aid of migrants on Nauru and Manus Island and has witnessed the Australian government's treatment of them. He believes there needs to be an honest public discussion about the impact of immigration on Australia. "We do not have the luxury to continue to turn a blind eye to the ongoing loss of our security and our liberty that has occurred over the last 20-30 years," he told 7.30. "I am concerned with the safety of my children, my wife and my family and that is the responsibility that is on all of us." Israel alone has taken in more migrants than Australia did in the last 30 years. Mr Cormack feels the Australian Jewish community needs to be heard. "I would like to think that there would be a desire in the community to
